1. COMPANY INFORMATION & DOCUMENT OVERVIEW

Strativa Consulting is a business consulting, startup development, branding, and digital marketing firm headquartered in Karachi, Pakistan. This HR and Employee Management Policy (Document Reference: STR-HR-POL-008) establishes fair, consistent, respectful, and transparent procedures for managing employees throughout their employment lifecycle, from recruitment to onboarding, performance evaluation, professional development, resignation, and exit.

2. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to establish how Strativa Consulting will recruit, manage, support, evaluate, and retain employees fairly and professionally. The policy promotes equal opportunity, employee development, workplace respect, accountability, confidentiality, consistent decision-making, and compliance with applicable employment requirements in Pakistan.

> STARTUP CONTEXT & DISTINCTION
>
> As a startup consulting firm, Strativa Consulting distinguishes between established company information and proposed startup operational policies. All procedures are designed to foster professional growth while maintaining operational flexibility.

3. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

This policy applies universally to all individuals operating within Strativa Consulting, including:

- Full-time employees
- Part-time employees
- Interns and trainees
- Contractual employees, where applicable
- Department heads and project managers
- The Managing Director / Founder

Specific terms may vary according to the employee's written employment agreement and applicable legal requirements.

4. HR ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

As Strativa Consulting is an emerging startup, human resources responsibilities are managed through an authorized management representative until a dedicated HR department is established. Responsibilities are defined as follows:

- Managing Director / Founder: Final approval for hiring, compensation structures, policy changes, executive escalation matters, and disciplinary terminations.
- Authorized HR Administrator: Managing recruitment advertising, onboarding paperwork, leave tracking, employee records, and routine HR inquiries.
- Department Heads & Project Managers: Setting performance objectives, conducting appraisal reviews, mentoring team members, and addressing day-to-day operational conduct.
- All Employees: Adhering to company policies, maintaining confidentiality, treating colleagues with respect, and participating actively in professional development.

5. RECRUITMENT AND WORKFORCE PLANNING

Recruitment at Strativa Consulting follows a transparent, objective procedure based entirely on merit, qualifications, and job requirements:

1. Vacancy Identification: Assessing business growth and project staffing needs.
2. Management Approval: Obtaining formal authorization from the Managing Director.
3. Job Description Preparation: Defining key duties, required skills, and performance expectations.
4. Advertising Vacancies: Posting through appropriate professional channels (e.g., LinkedIn, corporate website, university placement cells in Karachi).
5. Application Review: Screening incoming resumes against objective criteria.
6. Shortlisting: Selecting qualified candidates for preliminary screening.
7. Interviews & Assessments: Conducting structured interviews and skills evaluations.
8. Reference & Qualification Checks: Verifying educational credentials and professional references.
9. Decision Documentation: Recording evaluation scores and selection rationale.
10. Outcome Communication: Notifying successful and unsuccessful candidates professionally.

9. ATTENDANCE AND WORKING HOURS

Strativa Consulting operates on a structured schedule designed to balance productivity with flexibility. Official working hours are established as [Approved Working Hours: Monday to Saturday, 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM PKT], subject to specific contractual arrangements. Employees are expected to record their attendance accurately, observe punctuality, and notify supervisors promptly in case of illness or emergency absence. Remote or hybrid work arrangements must be pre-approved by management.

10. LEAVE AND TIME-OFF POLICY

Strativa Consulting provides structured leave provisions to support employee well-being and operational continuity:

- Annual / Earned Leave: Accrued as per employment agreement and applicable statutory requirements.
- Sick Leave: Allocated for personal medical recovery, requiring medical certificates for extended absences.
- Casual Leave: Short-term leave for urgent personal matters.
- Public Holidays: Observed in accordance with official government holidays announced in Pakistan.
- Maternity & Paternity Leave: Administered in compliance with applicable Pakistani labor laws.

Leave Procedure: Leave requests must be submitted via the official leave form at least 5 business days in advance for annual leave, and immediately in case of emergency sick leave. Overlapping team leaves are managed to ensure uninterrupted client service.

11. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION AND APPRAISAL

Performance management is an ongoing, collaborative process combining regular check-ins, monthly/quarterly progress reviews, and a formal annual appraisal. Evaluations are evidence-based, objective, and free from personal bias.

12. TRAINING AND EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT

Strativa Consulting is committed to continuous professional growth. Training programs encompass onboarding orientation, role-specific technical skills, client communication ethics, digital tools, cybersecurity awareness, and leadership coaching. Training needs are identified during performance appraisals and addressed through internal mentoring and authorized external workshops.

13. EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Strativa Consulting is an equal opportunity employer. We maintain a strict policy against discrimination, harassment, bullying, intimidation, and unfair treatment based on gender, religion, race, age, or background. All employment decisions—including recruitment, compensation, training, promotion, and performance evaluation—are based strictly on job-related criteria, qualifications, and merit, in full alignment with applicable employment standards in Pakistan.

14. WORKPLACE CONDUCT AND PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR

Employees are expected to uphold the highest standards of professional conduct, including respectful communication, teamwork, responsible use of company property, strict confidentiality, and adherence to company SOPs. Zero tolerance is maintained for harassment, threats, retaliation, or conflicts of interest.

15. EMPLOYEE GRIEVANCE AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

A confidential, fair, and accessible grievance procedure ensures workplace concerns are addressed promptly:

1. Identification: Document the specific grievance or concern.
2. Supervisor Reporting: Report the matter to the immediate supervisor or HR administrator.
3. Alternative Reporting: If the supervisor is involved, report directly to the Managing Director.
4. Acknowledgment: Acknowledge receipt in writing within 1 business day.
5. Fair Review: Investigate facts objectively, ensuring all parties are heard.
6. Corrective Action: Determine reasonable remedies or corrective measures.
7. Outcome Communication: Inform involved parties of the resolution.
8. Confidential Records: File records securely with strict confidentiality.
9. Anti-Retaliation Protection: Ensure complainants and witnesses are fully protected against retaliation.

16. EMPLOYEE RECORDS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

Employee records (including recruitment files, contracts, attendance, performance reviews, and payroll data) are collected and maintained securely. Access is strictly limited to authorized management personnel. Physical records are stored in locked cabinets, and digital files are encrypted on secure corporate cloud repositories. Unauthorized disclosure or mishandling of personnel data is strictly prohibited.

17. EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION AND RETENTION

To foster loyalty and high performance, Strativa Consulting recognizes employee achievements through constructive feedback, performance acknowledgments, professional advancement opportunities, workload balance reviews, and periodic rewards. Retention programs prioritize open dialogue and career pathing.

18. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES AND CORRECTIVE ACTION

When misconduct or repeated policy violations occur, management applies a fair, proportionate, and documented corrective process:

- Informal Guidance: Constructive coaching for minor oversights.
- Fact-Finding Investigation: Objective review of circumstances and evidence.
- Employee Hearing: Notification of concerns and opportunity for the employee to respond.
- Formal Warnings: Written warnings or Performance Improvement Plans (PIPs) for repeated infractions.
- Disciplinary Action: Further action, up to employment termination, for severe breaches (e.g., fraud, gross insubordination, severe confidentiality breaches).

19. RESIGNATION AND NOTICE PERIOD

Resignations must be submitted in writing. The applicable notice period is determined by the employee's contract (typically 30 days for regular staff). Upon resignation, employees must complete handover planning, return company property, reconcile leave, and participate in an exit interview.

20. EMPLOYEE EXIT AND OFFBOARDING

A structured offboarding checklist ensures seamless transition upon departure:
